

Matrix/Trans: Humanities in the 21st Century

Transdisciplinary Graduate Student Conference at Salve Regina University

Newport, Rhode Island

Saturday, May 2, 2009

Deadline for Proposals: April 1, 2009

Graduate students are invited to submit proposals for papers, panels, posters and/or installations for this transdisciplinary conference hosted by the Graduate Program at Salve Regina University.

Why and how do we do what we do, particularly in the context of globalization, technology and corporatization of the academy, among other problematic contexts?

We are looking for work representing the state of the art in humanities research, theory and praxis. Proposals may either directly or indirectly address the significance of humanities studies in the 21st century academy.

Proposals should be no longer than one page and should be submitted via e-mail as a Word or PDF document to the conference director, Mary E. Sokolowski at mary.sokolowski@salve.edu.

Please direct any questions to Professor Sokolowski via e-mail.
