Prepare to Lead in a Global Environment

Salve Regina's graduate program in business administration prepares professionals to successfully lead and manage within today's ever-evolving and increasingly global business environment. It is ideal for students seeking career advancement in fields that demand strong quantitative skills, such as accounting, finance and financial management.

In both the for-profit and not-for-profit environments, today's executive is faced with a myriad of concerns ranging from ethical and human rights issues to globalization and environmental protection. The Salve Regina University business administration curriculum provides the technical knowledge and skills to appreciate and address these and other critical contemporary issues. The program is directed toward developing leaders with a focus on ethics, organizational behavior, finance, economics, accounting and strategic management. Social purpose and workplace humanization are underlying program values aligned with the University's mission to work for a world that is harmonious, just and merciful.

Salve Regina University's MBA program is accredited by the International Accreditation Council for Business Education (IACBE).
