

Maria Iannotti

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Salve Regina University, Newport, RI 2014 – Present

Clinical Instructor – Mental Health Nursing

- Direct supervision of Nursing students in a clinical mental health setting.
- Present students with opportunities to provide appropriate, safe, and holistic nursing care to individuals suffering from mental health conditions.
- Teach compassion and understanding in treatment of patients suffering from mental illness.

Salve Regina University, Newport, RI 2017

Clinical Instructor – Aging and End of Life Care

- Responsible for clinical education of nursing students in a variety of clinical settings that care for aging patients and patients that require end of life care.
- Present students with opportunities to provide appropriate, safe, and holistic nursing care to families with aged members and patients approaching end of life.

Eleanor Slater Hospital, Cranston, RI 2008 – 2013

Manager of Nursing Services

- Directly responsible for planning, coordination, direction, and review of entire hospital nursing staff who provide nursing services at the adult psychiatric/forensic service division of Eleanor Slater Hospital.
- Duties included, without limitation, development of nursing service functions to meet clinical needs of patients, establishing and maintaining a system of nursing records, encouraged staff to participate in professional organizations to broaden staff competence, and oversaw patient-related incident investigations.

Eleanor Slater Hospital – Institute of Mental Health, Cranston, RI 1985 – 2008

Clinical Nurse Specialist

- More than twenty (20) years' experience in the field of the screening, evaluation, and assessment of patients for admission and treatment plan.
- Duties included, without limitation, orientation of nursing students, liaison for Institute of Mental Health to discuss and plan treatment services for long term patients, Clinical Supervisor and educator to nursing staff and Treatment Team, Co-Chairperson of Nursing Quality and Appropriations Committee, and organization of weekly Nurses' Support Groups.

EDUCATION

Roger Williams University, Bristol, RI

Certificate – School Nurse Teaching – 1997

University of Rhode Island, Kingston, RI

Master of Science – Nursing - 1987

Rhode Island College, Providence, RI

Bachelor of Science – Nursing – 1978

ADDITIONAL SKILLS

- ANCC Certified Clinical Nurse Specialist – Adult Psychiatric and Mental Health
- Decision-making, critical thinking, organization, planning.
- Communication skills and extensive experience in team environments.