

CURRICULUM VITAE

October 2011

NAME: Harold E. Lawber, Jr.
Professor/Economics

BUSINESS ADDRESS: Salve Regina University
Department of Economics
E-mail: lawberh@salve.edu

EDUCATION:

1972 B.A. Economics North Carolina State University
1974 M.E. Economics North Carolina State University
1989 Ph.D. Economics The University of Connecticut

FIELDS OF INTEREST:

Economic History
The History of Economic Thought
Macroeconomic Theory
Money and Banking
The History of Ideas

DISSERTATION:

Title: "Defense Spending and the Relative Decline of the British Economy, 1875-1914"

Major Advisor: William F. Lott, Ph.D.

FELLOWSHIPS AND HONORS:

1973-74 Omicron Delta Epsilon (National Honor Society for Economics, North Carolina State University)
1979-80 Predoctoral Fellowship, University of Connecticut
1980 Summer Fellowship, University of Connecticut
1985 Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship
1986-87 Abraham Ribicoff Award for the Study of Economic Policy, University of Connecticut
1992 Who's Who in the East
1997 Certificate of Commendation, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston
2000-2001 Who's Who in Finance and Industry, 31st edition.

- Spring 2002 Presidential Teaching Award, Salve Regina University
2002 Who's Who in America, 57th edition.
2004 Who's Who in America, 58th edition.
2005 Who's Who in American Education, 7th edition (2006).
2008 Who's Who in American Education, 9th edition

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

- 1975-1977 Instructor, Belmont Abbey College (Belmont, North Carolina). Courses taught include: Introductory Economics, American Economic History, Intermediate Macroeconomics, Intermediate Microeconomics, Comparative Economic Systems and History of Economic Thought. In addition to teaching load of 12-15 hours per semester, performed committee duties, served as undergraduate advisor, and established the undergraduate Economics Club.
- 1978-1981 Teaching Assistant, The University of Connecticut. Courses taught include:
1983 Introductory Microeconomics and Introductory Macroeconomics.
- 1980-1982 Lecturer, The University of Connecticut. Courses taught include: Introductory 1985 Macroeconomics, Introductory Microeconomics, Intermediate Macroeconomics and American Economic History.
- 1986-1987 Instructor, Trinity College (Hartford, Connecticut). Undergraduate courses taught include: Introductory Economics and Contemporary Economic Issues. Also taught graduate level microeconomics.
- 1989-1993 Assistant Professor, Salve Regina University. Undergraduate courses taught include: Principles of Economics I and II, Price Theory, Intermediate Macroeconomics, Public Finance, History of Economic Thought and Money and Banking.

 Graduate courses taught include: Price Theory, National Income Analysis, International Trade and Finance, and Money, Finance and Global Banking.
- 1990-1994 Graduate Director, Master of Business Administration in Global Business and Finance Program, Salve Regina University.
- 1994-1997 Chair, Economics Department, Salve Regina University
- 1993-2003 Associate Professor, Salve Regina University.
- 2003- Professor, Salve Regina University

RESEARCH, PRESENTATIONS and SCHOLARLY ACTIVITIES:

- 1980 Research Assistant: “The Fiscal Crisis in Higher Education: Low Income Minority, Enrollment at the University of Connecticut” (unpublished) by Professor Gerald Sazama.
- November 1996 Participant: “Reaction Functions; How to Explain the Fed’s Behavior” Economic Forum, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.
- April 1997 Judge: The Annual Federal Reserve “High School Challenge” Competition
- November 1997 Participant: “Current Challenges in Monetary Policy” Economic Forum, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.
- May 1998 Presenter: Eighteenth Annual Conference on Romance Languages and Literatures. University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio. Presented a paper entitled “Money, Class and Society: The Influence of Economic Conditions on Nineteenth Century French Literature.”
- October 1998 Participant: “Economic Forum on Monetary Policy” Economic Forum, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston
- June 2000 Moderator and Discussant: “Market Theories and Market Strategies,” The Biennial Conference of The Edith Wharton Society/Edith Wharton at Newport: 2000. Salve Regina University.
- Spring 2002 Presidential Teaching Award. Research area is the social impact of the early Industrial Revolution in Great Britain seen largely through selected works of Charles Dickens.
- March 2002 Attendee: Eastern Economic Association Annual Conference, Boston, Massachusetts.
- June 2002 Attendee: Summer Conference on Global Ethics, Salve Regina University.
- October 2003 Presenter: Third Annual New England Conference on Foreign Languages and Literature. University of Hartford, Hartford, CT. Presented a paper entitled “Money, Banking, and Finance in Nineteenth Century French Literature.”
- March 2005 Presenter: Circle of Scholars, Salve Regina University; “Economics for Everyone in the 21st Century.”
- November 2005 Presenter: Circle of Scholars, Salve Regina University; “A Further Look at Economics in the 21st Century.”

- July 2006 Presenter: Conference on “Icons and Iconoclasts: The Long 17th Century” at the Center for Early Modern Studies/University of Aberdeen, Aberdeen, Scotland. Paper entitled, “Toward a Home of Its Own: How 17th Century Thought Contributed to the Emergence of Modern Economics.”
- March 2007 Presenter: Circle of Scholars, Salve Regina University: “Can 18th and 19th Century Economic Theories Solve 21st Century Problems?”
- April 2007 Co-presenter: The 38th Annual College English Association Conference, New Orleans, Louisiana. Paper entitled: “Zola and the Rise of Commerce.”
- March 2008 Attendee: Eastern Economic Association Annual Conference, Boston, Massachusetts.
- April 2008 Presenter: Conference on “Passages”: The 39th Annual College English Association Conference, St. Louis, Missouri. Paper entitled, “The Devil and the Saint: Machiavelli, More and the Road to Modernity.”
- July 2008 Presenter: Third International Interdisciplinary Social Sciences Conference. Monash University Center, Prato, Tuscany, Italy. Paper entitled: “Bridging the Gap: Economics through Literature.”
- May 2009 Annual Conference on Romance Languages and Literatures, University of Cincinnati. Paper entitled: “Money, Markets, Mania, and Morality: Zola and the Birth of the Modern-day Shopper.”

PROFESSIONALLY-RELATED ACTIVITIES:

- SENEDIA Project Worked as part of a consulting team in conjunction with the Newport Chamber of Commerce conducting research into the impact of defense-related spending on the local and state economies.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS:

- Member, American Economic Association
- Member, Economic History Association
- Member, History of Economics Society
- Member, The Historical Society

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT:

- Middletown Little League, Assistant Coach
- YMCA Basketball, Assistant Coach

REFERENCES:

Available upon Request